DR. BURLESON AN INVENTOR

A man can be a Chiropractor and an Osteopath without being a mechanic. But he cannot be an inventor without being a mechanical genius. Dr. F. R. Burleson is all of these things in one. As a diversion from the practice of his profession to bring relief of pain to suffering human bodies, he has devoted considerable time and study to mechanics.

Out of this he has evolved a power transmission device that may revolutionize gear-driven machinery. A model for which application has already been made for a patent is on exhibition at his office on the highway. Roughly described the mechanism consists of a revolving disk. On this disk at regular distances apart are set revolving cams and as the disk revolves these cams mesh in a ratchet that is stationary and within which the disk revolves. We are not enough of a mechanic to know, but it looks to us like it might multiply the pulling power many times over the ordinary cog wheels.

The doctor's friends are hoping he may realize his fondest dreams with his invention.

SOLDIER ENTERTAINERS AP- PEAR ON RADIO SHOW

Several members of the entertainment staff of the enlisted men's Service club were guests on the radio program, "What's Your Name, Soldier", which originated at Dallas last Friday night.

Those taking part in the program, which is sponsored by the Eighth Service Command war bonds department, were Cpls. Leon Goldstein, John Glasper, Roy Stephenson, Bill and Stan Fleschman, and Pvt. Jim Price and Al Cininte.

The group, under Capt. Charles A.
Baril, special services officer, who also spoke in behalf of the bonds drive, went to Dallas Friday evening.
They appeared on the program, which was also electrically reproduced Saturday night, over a Texas network.

A transcription of the program will be presented at Hondo Army Air Field at a later date.

WEEKLY CONCERTS MEET WITH GROWING SUCCESS

The 324th AAF band will present its weekly light concert next Thursday night at the enlisted men's Service club at 8:30 o'clock.

The concerts are designed to offer a variety of selections which will suit the tastes of the many who attend.

The Wednesday night recorded "Pops" concerts, which have attracted large audiences added a new trend to their appeal this week when the "Sheherazade Suite" was offered in its entirety. The programs are presented at the post library, under the direction of the special services department.

MEMORIAL SERVICES HELD HONORING SOLDIER DEAD

Honor was paid to the memory of soldiers of the past and present wars who lost their lives in defense of the nation at a military ceremony held Sunday at the post headquarters' buildings.

Despite heavy rain, the 324th AAF band paraded at noon to post headquarters, as the 917th Guard squadron stood formation while the flag, at half mast since reveille, was raised to the head of the flagpole.

Personnel of the post had earlier been asked to maintain a period of silence and all traffic was halted during the brief ceremony.

Rain rendered impossible other Memorial day plans on the post and in the city of Hondo.

S/SERGEANT WOODHAMS WINS CLASS 43-8 HONOR AWARD

Staff Sergeant Lester B. Wood-hams, 29, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. M.
Woodhams, Sonora, Calif., has been named honorary member of the class of newly graduating cadets who won their Army Air Forces Navigator's wings here Thursday.

Sgt. Woodhams, who is squadron line inspector for the 838th navigation training squadron, entered the Army Air Forces in June, 1942. He was trained at several Army aircraft mechanic schools and assigned to duty at the navigation school. His promotion to his present rank came in February of this year.

The honor sergeant award is made by each graduating class to some aircraft mechanic whose efforts have contributed greatly in readying the big navigation training ships at Hondo for day and night training flights.

CADET HANDBOOK TO GREET NEWLY ARRIVING CADETS

In an effort to familiarize the newly arrived cadets with the field and the town of Hondo, the public relations office, in cooperation with other departments on the post, has published a handbook which is to be called, "The Boomerang".

The book, which will be given to each cadet as he enters training at the navigation school, offers the cadet an idea of what his life will be in the following 18 weeks, by describing the many departments on the field with which he will come in contact.

Composed of many featured articles, written by competent men in the field of navigation, and spaced with pictures and illustrations of life at Hondo, the handbook will help to offset many of the problems and questions which arise when the new cadet reports to the field.

SERVICE CLUB ORCHESTRA PLAYS IN SAN ANTONIO

The service club orchestra will play at the Jewish U. S. O. dance to be held in San Antonio Wednesday night. The 13-piece band will be under the direction of Pfc. Allan Ray, who will also be vocalist.

Another of the series of Friday night dances held at the enlisted men's Service club will be opened this week to members of all organizations on the field.

MILITARY PERSONNEL TO HOLD SATURDAY REVIEW

A review of all military personnel of the field will be held Saturday morning on the west ramp of the flying field.

Reviewing officer will be Lt. Col.
Cecil H. Childre. Following the review a personal inspection will be made. All officers, cadets and enlisted men will take part. In addition, the 743rd WAAC post headquarters group will take part in the exercises, in its initial appearance since arriving on the field.

Medina County has every effort should be made to study a plan whereby a county wide organization could be used in developing these resources.

H. C. Richards, a member of the board of directors, and Joe Law, manager of the Hondo Chamber of Commerce, attended the South Texas Annual meeting at San Antonio Tuesday. H. C. Richards was elected last week to the board of directors of the South Texas organization to represent Hondo in South Texas affairs.

Attention, fishermen—Earl B.
Franks, new state game warden, arrived in Hondo last week to take up his new duties. Like all new comers he was a temporary guest of our sheriff whose office he is making his headquarters. He will serve Medina and Bandera counties and succeeded Game Warden Koontz. He formerly lived at Sonora and patroled Sutton and Crickett Counties and claims Uvalde as his home. Important thing is that he is a good mixer and takes his job seriously. Welcome to Hondo, Earl B. Franks, and we can assure you that we have a swell bunch of sportsmen in this county who will give you every bit of support and help needed to carry out your duties.

The Chamber of Commerce has sprouted out with some new stationery. All of the principle products and industry carried on in Medina county are listed and the names of all the leading towns in the county are listed in bold type telling what they are chiefly noted for. The purpose is to sell Hondo and Medina County. A new prospectus which also give the county a big play will be published soon and will be circulated all over the United States.

grass. He put a few sheep on them a few years ago. Now the broom-weeds are gone but he has too many sheep—hence, wise husbandman that he is, he plans to thin out his flock.

In a personal letter to the ME, our friend, W. H. H. DuBose, the fruit and vegetable man from Black Creek, informs us that he is about through gathering a nice dewberry crop. Due, however, to transportation difficulties his Hondo friends missed sharing in the distribution of the berries. His grapes and plum crops failed, but peaches are looking good, and a timely rain which was falling when he wrote promised roasting ears and watermelons. He hopes to see his Hondo friends soon, and when he does he will have some of the fruits of his garden and orchard to dispose of to the delectation of Hondo appetites.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to our neighbors and friends for their kind assistance during the illness and death of our dearly beloved husband and father, Henry Haas. We especially wish to thank the Rev. A. H. Falkenberg and Choir of Zion's Lutheran Church of Castroville. Also all those who attended the funeral and for the many kind words of sympathy.

The Best Place To Eat

From where I sit ...

by Joe Marsh

Bill Burry was reflecting back on the last war and what the boys used to do when they got a furlough.

"We weren't a hard-drinking bunch particularly, but that was in Prohibition," said Bill, "and forbidden fruit always seems worth goin' after. We'd hunt up a bootlegger, which was easy, and buy a bottle.

"So, instead of a beer or two, well—I guess we generally drank too much! ... wonder what the boys are doing this time?"

I got out the official report the Office of War Information made and read him this: "The fact that there is vastly less drinking among soldiers in this war may stem in part from the sale of beer in camps."

From where I sit, it certainly doesn't look as if we had to worry about our boys. We learned our lesson in the last war, and I'm glad to see we're on the right track now.

WIEMERS ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Wiemers of San Antonio announce the engagement of their daughter, Nelda Estelle, to Aviation Cadet Warren Vernon Hastings, son of Mr. and Mrs.
V. F. Hastings, also of San Antonio.
Miss Wiemers is a graduate of Thomas Jefferson High School. She attended the University of San Antonio and received her bachelor of arts degree in music from Trinity University last month, where she was president of the Spurs, secretary of the Student Body, and was listed in Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.
She is also a past president of the Gamma chapter of the National Society of Pi Mu. Hastings is a graduate of Brackenridge High School, where he was an R. O. T. C. officer and member of the National Honor Society. He attended A. and M. College and received his degree last June from the University of San Antonio, where he was president of the senior class and was listed in Who's Who. He is stationed at Ellington Field. The wedding will take place this month.

A number of parties have been planned for Miss Wiemers, among them a shower-tea which will be given on June 9, in Hondo in the home

LEINWEBER H. D. CLUB NEWS

The Leinweber Home Demonstration Club met at the home of Mrs.
George Koch on May 26, with seven members and Miss Velma Hambleton, the agent, present.

After a short business meeting, Miss Hambleton gave a brief but interesting talk on food preservation by brining and salting, a demonstration this club failed to have. Miss Hambleton said that after the vegetables are brined and are ready for use they are washed to remove excess salt, and are then prepared the same as when fresh, but by salting and brining too much food value is lost because brining is fourth in food value.

The Club attended a demonstration on "Canning and Drying Foods" at Hondo on May 14. Miss Harriet Dickinson, Home Supervisor of Farm Security Administration, gave a demonstration on canning acid and non-acid vegetables, and Miss Hambleton gave a demonstration on drying fruits and vegetables.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostess.

The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Ashbel Gil-ham on June 9th at 2 o'clock.

PLANT A LATE GARDEN

Your garden may have been Victorious thus far, but its future success depends pretty much on the weather and on your ability to look ahead. J. F. Rosborough, ... he's the agent, says the good gardener will look around now and decide what vegetables can be replanted for summer production.

It's a pretty safe bet that your early radishes, mustard greens, spinach, and English peas are about gone. If they're past their prime, pull them up, and give the soil a good spading. You can replace these vegetables with cream peas or black-eyes which can take the summer heat. Or, if you've had a good rain you might put in a second planting of field corn. Some varieties of field corn can be planted now, too.

Provided you've got the space, you can set out a few late tomato plants.
Rosborough warns that you'd better give these plenty of room for summer growth. Four feet between plants isn't too much. It's a good idea to put them where they can be watered during the hot weeks ahead.
Here's one other suggestion—summer tomatoes shouldn't be staked.
Pruning off the suckers below the first cluster is all that's necessary.

If you need advice about the varieties of summer tomatoes or corn best adapted to your own county, get in touch with your county Extension Service agents.

And here's one final word of advice. Be on the lookout for the cucumber beetles, squash bugs, and the harlequin cabbage bug. This is also the time to guard against stink bugs, tomato suck flies, and potato beetles. Get the corn ear worms and cabbage worms before they get you

County Agent.

Whenever that happens, the operator will

The idea is to give everybody a fair share

Washington Snapshots by JAMES PRESTON

All statements and opinions in this column are Mr. Preston's own and do not necessarily represent those of this paper.—M. E.

Every time the administration sets up an inflation barrier someone comes along and knocks it down.
First it was the "Little Steel" formula. Then came the "hold the line" order which begins to resemble a sieve. To a great body of legislators the present situation is shaping up into another inflation spiral.

With labor clamoring for raises and getting them, and the farm owner to get theirs too, there is the question of the weakness of the machinery that has been set up to control the rising cost of living.
The establishment of subsidies to enable the OPA to roll back prices on food and other cost-of-living items, estimated, will cost a half billion dollars all of which will have to be paid later on in taxes.

These problems which are now up-most here because of their nation-importance are closely connected with the attempt Congress is making to straighten out the muddled labor policy by spelling out a clean cut, definite, and workable national policy. Legislation to strengthen the government's hand in dealing with labor abuses tending to interfere with war production now pending in the Senate-approved War Relocation Authority Bill (S. 796).
The House approval of a mere amendment appeared to be almost certain, there are indications at the Capitol that the Senate was not receptive at this time to several of the added House Committee provisions.

Excitement in the labor and inflation rings has tended to draw attention from what many on Capitol hill regard as the second "battle of the air." Truman Committee evidence leading a substantial bloc of lawmakers to believe there has been an organized "ganging up" against Nelson and there are many Democrats as well as Republicans who are primed to strengthen the WPB efforts.

The Kilgore Bill to establish a Federal Office of Scientific and Technical Mobilization has been considered by the National Association Manufacturers as a threat of a serious government monopoly.
The effect of the measure would be to authorize the complete socialization of all forms of property, methods, technical information, and know-how of all industries.
All personnel devoted to scientific and technical effort," the Association report said.

Strangely enough the first report of the special House Interstate Commerce Subcommittee to investigate plans of Federal agencies to enlarge established business and industrial practices has recommended the War Production Board take steps to prevent "waste and non-essential use of paper" by the Federal Government and that the WPC describe paper production as an essential war industry. The Committee led by Representative Lyle Boren accused the government of being the principal waster of paper.

Strong opposition to the Senateapproved Maloney Bill to create an independent civilian supply agency from both Democrats and Republicans in the House. A vigorous fight will be waged in the lower body to drastically amend and kill the Bill known as S. 885.

DEVINE NEWSLETTS SERVICE SCHOOL TO OPEN HERE MONDAY

May 31 there will meet together Devine instructors from the University of Texas and citizens of Atascosa and Medina Counties for the purpose of sponsoring the Medina Valley War Service Community School Program.
Harry Moore, a sociologist for the University, who is regarded as one of the most eminent scholars on social and economic conditions of the South, will be not only an instructor but will be moderator for many interesting discussions that will be conducted daily throughout the week. Dr. Moore is often known not only as a scholar but also as being "earthy," a close to the people and the people's problems. He is more frequently called "Harry" than he is "Dr."

Nation's tanker torn in half by a Nazi torpedo, slides below, after depth charges.

A WEEK OF THE WAR

Last week was a relatively quiet one in the war. The battle of Attu Island entered its final phase. Allied planes kept up a steady rain of bombs on Axis Mediterranean ports and European production centers.
Storms raging over most of the Southwest Pacific hampered air activity in the Solomons and in New Guinea.

When the week opened, the trapped Japanese garrison on Attu had been split up into three groups—isolated pockets harassed continually by low-flying American fighter planes. Attu village had been virtually wiped off the map by U. S. bombing and strafing planes. Then, on Wednesday, the Navy announced that one of the three Jap pockets had been wiped out and that Army ground troops were attacking another.

Attack by Combined Forces Enemy forces trapped in the area around Chichagof Pass were cleaned up by combined northern and southern American ground forces. The assault was made along the ridge of Chichagof Valley, and was supported by Army bomber and fighter planes.
The same forces then attacked the second isolated Jap group, the garrison holding out farther north in the area around Chichagof Harbor, and after hard fighting in a coordinated attack along the ridge south of the Corridor, U. S. Army troops succeeded in gaining a foothold on the high ground south of the harbor.

A U. S. naval ship bombarded Japanese shore installations in the area and started numerous fires, as the ground troops continued their drive. All buildings in the area were destroyed.

The Japanese have fought back, but their retaliatory bombing raids have had little effect on the American advances. Secretary of War Stimson holding a press conference in Washington, said these attacks were carried out with bombers which appeared from and departed for the west, and suggested that the planes were operating from bases in the Kurile Island group.

Incomplete reports of American casualties in the struggle for Attu show 127 killed, 399 wounded and 118 missing. Secretary Stimson, in giving out these figures, said Japanese losses were believed to be heavier.

Bad weather, which aided the Americans in their initial landing, subsequently hampered their progress in the campaign, interfering with naval artillery and aerial bombardment. The Army has been advancing steadily under conditions of sleet and snow, but freezing temperatures and heavy fog have prevented the full use of air power. Most of the fighting has been between infantry units using bayonets and hand grenades.

Secretary Stimson predicted that if air operations can be continued in good weather, the clean-up of the Japanese will be expedited.

Mediterranean Bombing Attacks

The heavy pounding of Allied bombings was inflicted over and over last week on Italy's most important ports. Harbor installations, supply center, rail and road facilities, airfields, warehouses, ships, in Sicily, Sardinia and Italy felt the destructive might of Allied planes. In one daylight attack, more than 300 planes of Maj. Gen. James Doolittle's strategic air force swarmed over Sardinia, meeting no fighting opposition and no anti-aircraft fire, wrecking ships, buildings and airfields. In another series of raids, Flying Fortresses and Liberators roared over the Sicilian ferry terminus of Messina in one of the most successful attacks of the North African campaign, virtually paralyzed that port, and in 24 hours brought down 23 enemy aircraft over Sicily, Sardinia and Pan-telleria.

Raid on New Guinea

After several days of limited activity, forced upon them by bad weather, Gen. Douglas MacArthur's Allied fliers, using one-ton bombs, raided the Japanese bases at Lae and Madang, and attacked a long stretch of the New Guinea coastline.

Twenty-eight tons of explosives and fire bombs were dropped on Lae, on Huon Gulf along the Northeast New Guinea coast. Fires visible 75 miles were set in supply dumps and direct hits were scored on two grounded enemy planes.

The planes at tree-top height strafed Japanese installations with 12,000 rounds of machine gun fire.
Intense enemy anti-aircraft fire brought down one fighter of the force of Liberators, Mitchell's and Beaufighters that made the attack.

Eight-Day Blitz over Europe

In twin attacks on the Nazi submarine bases at Wilhelmshaven and Emden, in Germany, American Flying Fortresses and Liberators brought down 74 enemy fighter planes, losing only 12 American bombers. This was a new record, and boosted to 269 the number of German fighters shot down in combat in an eight-day blitz over Europe. The loss ratio in these attacks was more than six enemy planes for every American bomber lost.

HENDRICKSON APPEARS ON RATIONING PROGRAM

Roy F. Hendrickson (right), director of the Food Distribution Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture, being interviewed by Ernest K. Lindley (left), Washington editor of Newsweek Magazine, on the public service radio program, "Washington Reports on Rationing." This program is presented by the Council on Candy as Food in the War Effort, an organization sponsored by the National Confectioners' Association. It is broadcast from Washington every Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, CWT, over the NBC network.

Moore

Cooperating with Dr. Moore will be Miss Jennie Wilmet, an instructor in Home Economics, who will teach a course in foods and nutrition.
Born and reared on a farm has had its influence on Miss Wilmet, for although a college teacher she still spends her vacation on her parents' farm and teaches a course on rural home managing at the University of Texas. "Jennie" plans to be there when the discussion is going, to see that the farm woman is not forgotten or that the moderator overlooks woman's part in the war. She says she wants to get a "plug in" for the woman whose duty it is to feed the family during the war.

A third member of the faculty is Miss Jeanie M. Pinckney who will teach a course in education to all those who are not interested in "Harry's" or "Jennie's" courses. To aid the students in their understanding of wholesome life and living, Miss Pinckney is bringing a library of several hundred books most of which are books of recent date. There is everything in this library from "Health During the War Period" to "Post War Problems." These books are available to those who read, whether they are enrolled or not.
See "Jeanie" if you want something interesting to read, and if you want to know something about a two room rural school ask her about it.

This Medina Valley War Service Community-School Program is being made possible through the cooperation of Mr. Pointer, Superintendent of Schools; Mr. Bain, President of the Chamber of Commerce; Mr. Tilley, Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, and Miss Louise Newman of the Devine High School.

CHILD'S HAND CRUSHED IN CLOTHES WRINGER

The little three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vollmer of San Antonio, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Keller, had an arm crushed badly the past week by getting it caught in a clothes wringer.

PEANUT LOSS FROM FIRE NOT YET FIGURED

The loss by fire which wrecked one of the big bonded warehouses last week, has not been ascertained.
Thousands of bushels were taken from the ruins, water soaked, spread out to dry; but the rain Saturday morning added to their ruin. Five big trucks have been busy all the week hauling from the ruin to the peanut mills in Seguin. The amount of peanuts in the burned building was estimated between 500,000 and 600,000 pounds. Damage to building will probably run $1,000 or more.

POSTAL INFORMATION

The new method of speeding up mail deliveries, through addition of a branch post office number to the address on mail for delivery in large cities, is being placed in operation rapidly. Reports from many cities indicate that it has been received enthusiastically by the press, postmasters, business concerns and the public.

Within a few days after initiation of the plan, under instructions of Postmaster General Frank C. Walker, nearly all the postmasters in the large cities affected had assigned postal unit numbers to their branch offices, millions of residents had been advised of the number to be added to their addresses, and a considerable volume of mail already was carrying the numbers assigned. By June 1, it is expected that practically all whose addresses are affected will have been notified of their postal unit numbers.

The new system speeds up the separation of mail for distribution to branch offices and permits much more rapid handling of mail by experienced postal clerks, thousands of whom have been employed to replace personnel who have gone into the armed forces and into war industries.

Rapid increase in volume of mail and the loss of some thirty thousand postal employees to the armed forces made it necessary to adopt the plan, in the interest of accurate, efficient mail service and for the relief of postal personnel who are carrying an extremely heavy burden of work. The average work week in the service now is about 52 hours, and in many post offices, employees are working 10 and 12 hours a day, seven days a week, because of local shortages of personnel.

An example of the new type of address is:

John C. Smith
222 Mattapan Ave.
Boston 8
Massachusetts

The number after the name of the city indicates the branch post office (or "postal unit") through which delivery is made. Each resident of the large cities is asked by his postmaster to add the postal unit number to his return address, and to notify all to whom he writes that his address is not complete without the number.

Residents of small cities, towns and rural regions should inquire of their correspondents in the large cities concerning the number assigned to the city residents' branch post office so that the mail may be expedited. The degree to which mail will be speeded depends upon the extent to which the numbers are used by mailers.

Under the new plan, mail that is sent to large cities, carrying the postal unit number, will be distributed more quickly than is possible now and with much less strain on postal clerks. While mail which does not bear the number will be delivered about as rapidly as at present, it will not receive the benefit of the speedier distribution and may not avoid possible delays caused by inability of the depleted force of experienced employees to handle all the mail.

Postmasters, the press and the radio in the cities affected are co-operating to bring the plan to the attention of the public. Hundreds of articles on the subject have appeared in newspapers, some postmasters have made radio talks advising the public of the advantages of the plan, maps showing the districts in cities, with their numbers, have been published, and chambers of commerce have assisted in bringing the plan to the attention of businessmen. In one large city, the Mayor, who is unfamiliar with postal work, personally demonstrated the efficiency of the new system by making a separation of numbered mail rapidly and without a single mistake. At the request of postmasters, scores of large companies are submitting their mailing lists for addition of the number, and millions of addresses have been so corrected.

Postmasters throughout the country are publicizing the plan, since its success depends on the degree to which the public realizes the fact that the mails will be speeded by addition of the proper number to mail for the large cities.

VALDINA CONTINUES RACING, BREEDING

By Vic Emanuel in The Houston Post

The Valdina farms, vast horse racing enterprise which was the major hobby of E. F. Woodward, will continue in racing and breeding as heretofore.

That announcement was made Saturday by W. B. (Bill) Barnhill, secretary to the late multi-millionaire oil man, and under the will filed for probate Saturday, one of the three trustees of the estate.

"I believe that would be in accord with the wishes of Mr. Woodward, Mr. Barnhill was quoted as saying.

He declined to amplify his statement except to say that at present not even a partial dispersal was contemplated.

Heir to Valdina farms and to all of the immense Woodward holdings is 15-year-old Robert Royce Woodward, grandson of the multi-millionaire.

Under the will young Woodward does not come into his holdings until he is 30 years old. Besides Mr. Barnhill, trustees named are John F. Dillard, attorney, and J. A. Phillips, accountant. No special provision for the upkeep of Valdina farms was made in the will.

John Podesta is general manager of the racing stable and Ralph Colvin, manager of the breeding farm which lies in Uvalde and Medina counties and is as large as many continental duchies.

Mr. Colvin is a brother-in-law of Mrs. E. F. Woodward, who died last Saturday in the auto-train collision wherein Mr. Woodward suffered fatal injuries.

Both Podesta and Colvin are expected to take general instructions from Mr. Barnhill.

William Helis, Louisiana oil millionaire, who Friday paid $55,000 for the horse Attention in public auction, had expressed interest in purchasing some of the Valdina stars, such as Rounders, Valdina Orphan and the flashy 3-year-old filly, Valdina Marl.

And several famous Texas horsemen were said to be considering the purchase of Valdina farms if it were placed on sale.

At his death Mr. Woodward owned nearly 300 horses. In training at Lincoln Fields, Chicago, are 22. On the farm are 110 brood mares, 65 foals, 42 yearlings, six stallions and eight or 10 others.

Recently Mr. Woodward disposed of some of his more famous horses. Sir Emerson, his first stake winner, was sold to a California breeder and recently was running at Agua Caliente for $500. Eagle Pass, good 3-year-old of 1937 vintage, is doing remount service for the army. Viscounty, his leading money winner, was claimed by A. G. Tarn last year and ran Friday at Suffolk Downs for $1500. St. Andrews, imported horse, which holds the world record

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"Good morning, Doc. Your good wife tells me you're working night and day now that so many of the younger doctors are in the army."

"That's right, Judge, and I'm glad I'm still able to do it. Had a long letter from Harry... that bright young fellow I was breakin' in to take over my practice. He said the boys in the service are getting the best medical care of any armed force in our history. They really should with all those brilliant doctors and plenty of supplies to work with."

"Speaking of supplies, Doc, not many people realize that a large part of the war-alcohol required to make the medical supplies that are being used right this minute to alleviate pain, combat infection and save human lives, is produced by the beverage distilling industry. This entire industry stopped making whiskey months ago and has been working night and day producing nothing but war-alcohol."

"Nobody knows better than I, Judge, what an important contribution to our war effort that really is."

Last Monday morning, Lt. J. W. Goodfellow of Group II was judged the "champion navigator" of Class 43-8. In a two hour competitive navigation mission Lt. Goodfellow out-navigated his opponents by splitting his destination dead center, and computing his time (ETA) of arrival within 35 seconds of the actual.

Men from all over the nation have won silver navigators' wings at the Army Air Forces' largest navigation school and are now doing their part to seek out the enemy and bomb him into submission on every fighting front.

Using an ordinary five-cent pencil, a kit of special navigator's tools and a steady hand, these young men have learned to find their way through alien skies by reference to sun and stars.

Not only is the navigator charged with the task of getting his bomber over the target at the appointed time, but he must take over again after the bombs are dropped and guide his ship and crew safely home.

POST ALL STAR SOFTBALL TEAM TO BE NAMED SOON

An all-star post softball team will be chosen and named in the next week it was announced by the director of physical training, Lt. Bennie Rundell.

Members of the various squadron teams on the field will vote for a man who has proven himself as their opponent. The physical training dept. will also lend a hand in the final choice.

Voting blanks will be passed out to all qualified voters at the athletic office located behind the Service club, during the week.

HONDO NAVIGATORS DOWN SPEEDY KELLY FIELD NINE

Springing into the lead of the first inning by collecting four successive hits and cashing in on a Kelly Field war workers' error, the Hondo Navigators scored the three runs which gave them the closing lead over the war workers' single tally.

Showing top form of the season Hondo ace pitcher Marty Errante allowed eight scattered hits and enjoyed excellent backing from teammates in the field. Wilson was on the receiving end of Errante's efforts on the mound. Nerajno and Steuret were batteries for Kelly Field. Nerajno allowed 7 hits but was unable to scatter them.

After the Hondo slug-fest of the first inning was subdued, the contest turned into a steady game of pitching and playing skill. One run in the ninth saved the war workers from a blank defeat.

Next on the list of contests for the top form Hondomen is the Randolph Field Ramblers, with Hartung a likely choice to take the mound for Hondo.

USO CLUB NOTES

BINGO JACK POT GROWS

No one "bingoed" on 9 numbers called last Tuesday night which brings the total to $3.00 in War Stamps for next Tuesday. Ten stamps will be added each week. Sergeant Lloyd Bonham was "on the beam" last week, winning in the midst of pino, juke box, drums and other distractions. Crazy Bingo had the crowd well near crazy trying to keep up with what was going on.

CURTAINS! CUPBOARDS!

The cupboards in the work room are being built by men in their free time who like to wield a hammer and saw. Curtains are being made by the wives but more hands are needed. Anyone who likes to sew or saw could render a real service by giving a few hours of their time towards helping on these. Wednesday and Friday afternoons in the work room for sewing, or almost any afternoon you might put in a hem or two.

BRIDGE TOURNAMENT

The Bridge Tournament held Wednesday evenings at the Club seems to be falling by the wayside. New players are needed if the tournament is to be continued. So come up this week on Wednesday at 8 o'clock if you would like this activity on the program. War stamps are awarded for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd prizes.

DANCE

There will be a dance this Saturday night at the high school gymnasium with the 324th AAF band furnishing the music, and they are really learning to play a Conga. If you can lead a Conga line don't hesitate to step forward when the dance is announced. This band gets better all the time. The dancing during the summer months will start at 8:30 P. M. instead of 8 o'clock as previously.

SQUARE DANCE HELD EVERY THURSDAY AT THE CLUB

A lot of familiar faces were missing last week but lots of new faces showed up. Since we are having the Junior Hostesses from Castroville on Thursday night they should soon become very efficient in dancing the figures as well as the couple dances. So don't hesitate to ask the Junior Hostesses to help you learn them.

D'HANIS, TEXAS, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 2, 1943

The dance previously announced for Saturday night, June 5, in the School Auditorium has been postponed.

Cpl. Richard Hitzfeldt of Oklahoma City spent a few days at home last week with his parents, Major and Mrs. Walter Hitzfeldt. His brother, George Hitzfeldt, who is in the U. S. Marines, is still somewhere in the South Pacific, and was recently promoted to a private first class.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kimmerly have announced the approaching marriage of their daughter, Mathilda, to Cpl. Joe Martin Zinsmeyer, the wedding to take place June 8. Cpl. Zinsmeyer and Pfc. Charles Saathoff, both of Frederick, Okla., arrived home Tuesday for a ten-day furlough.

Mrs. Bertha Weynand, Mrs. Louis Pichot, Mrs. Carl Rudinger, and Mrs. Floyd Tomerlin and little daughter, Jolene, attended the graduation exercises at the Municipal Auditorium in San Antonio Friday evening. Mrs. Weynand's grandson, Jack Selman, was a member of the class from Brackenridge High School.

Thomas Victor Boog spent several days here last week with his father, Mr. A. J. Boog, while on vacation before going back to A. and M. College to resume his studies as a freshman. Boog is assistant sports editor of the College paper and is in the U. S. Air Corps Enlisted Reserves.

Mrs. A. J. Boog and daughters, and Carmen, came from San Antonio Friday to attend the commencement exercises, at which time the latter appeared in a soprano solo.

Mrs. Ferdie Koch, who was quite ill last week, is now on the way to recovery. Her sons, Lt. Vernon Koch of Camp McCoy, Wis., and Cpl. Tyrus Koch of Camp Polk, Leesville, La., are at home on emergency furloughs.

Mrs. Roy Nester has received indirect information stating that Lt. Nester had arrived in North Africa. Pvt. Louis Charles Richter is presumably in the same group.

Mr. A. W. Holliday and daughter, Miss Kathryn, of Sunray, Texas, are visiting with relatives here and in San Antonio.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Dugosh and Dr. Suge of San Antonio visited with the Ferdie Koch family Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Steineman and children of Odessa arrived here Wednesday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Christine Rudinger, who returned home after a month's visit with the Steinemans in Odessa.

D'HANIS HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES TEN

The Commencement Exercises of the Class of 1943 of the D'Hanis High School took place in the school auditorium on Friday, May 28, at 8:30 P. M. At this time ten Seniors were presented with diplomas by Mr. Paul Reinhart, president of the board of trustees.

While the processional, Meyer-Leer's "Coronation March", was being played on the piano, the members of the class marched to their places on the stage, robed in blue gowns and mortar-board caps with tassels of blue and white. David Zinsmeyer gave the President's Address, "Our Class", after which Mrs. Amos Finger, pianist, played a waltz by Brahms. Vivian Biry gave the Salutatory, "America Calls to Youth", and Evelyn Lutz the Valedictory, "Our Victorious Future". Carmen Boog, soprano, sang Charles's "A Little Green Gateway to Heaven".

Mr. Woodrow Glascock, member of the board of trustees, gave an appropriate talk to the members of the Eighth Grade, to whom he presented Elementary School Certificates. Mr. Reinhart also spoke briefly before presenting high-school diplomas to the following: Imogene Bendele, Vivian Biry, Jeanette Langfeld, Evelyn Lutz, Matiana Martinez, Madeline Nester, Dorothy Nell Saathoff, Louis Schmidli, Myles Weynand, and David Zinsmeyer.

Superintendent S. H. Willis presented medals as follows: valedictorian, Evelyn Lutz; salutatorian, Vivian Biry; citizenship, David Zinsmeyer; mathematics, Melba Rose Lutz and Gladys Weynand; pre-flight aeronautics, Billy Rothe; geometry, Edward Marquardt; scholarship, Dorothy May Lutz; commercial courses, Vivian Biry and Evelyn Lutz. Certificates for regular attendance were awarded to Dorothy Nell Saathoff, Myles Weynand and Johnny Nester.

The National Anthem was sung by the audience, and Beethoven's "Marche a la Turque" was played during the recessional.

SENIORS HONORED

Members of the Senior Class of 1943 of D. H. S. were invited guests of Reverend John J. Hanacek at the regular Sunday morning services in Holy Cross Church at 9 o'clock May 30, and at a breakfast which followed at the rectory. The class proceeded into the church while a march was being played on the pipe organ. After reading the Gospel for the Sunday, Father Hanacek spoke to the graduates, reminding them of their many blessings and privileges. The Catholic members of the class received Holy Communion during Mass. The mothers of the Seniors served a sumptuous breakfast to the honorees and Father Hanacek, Superintendent and Mrs. S. H. Willis, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Finger, Miss Carrie Langfeld, Miss Cornelia Koch and Miss Charlotte Boog.

On Sunday evening at 8 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Henry Biry were hosts at a delightful barbecue supper, honoring their daughter, Vivian, a member of the Senior Class of 1943. The meal, which was served on the lawn of their home, consisted of barbecue, potato salad, pickles, cake, and iced tea. There were about forty guests.

The Poetry

IN THE GARDEN OF DREAMS

On a day with life newly charged and a thrill
When the air flowed in scented streams;
In a garden scarve-wound with blooming April
I walked with the girl of my dreams—
Walked with the girl of life's wonder.
She whose presence could paradise recall;
Her lone self could break and rend asunder
All chains trailing the first man's fall.
I walked with Lilith through white
April
In an Eden yet held to heaven's will.
Came this day noon-drowsy with
April
In a garden lying along Memory Lane;
Where the Brown Thrush joined the Mocker's trill
And bright-winged Jays sang in merry strain—
The air was wine, and her presence too,
Was fitting, quite, to make heaven complete:
To undo ancient wrongs and old Eden renew—
From her raven hair to her dainty feet.
For a Garden of Dreams she was the needed one:
The Soul of the deed when the work is done.

I spoke of deeds I never had known; Spoke to this girl from a world far away,
Told her of banners on shining fields flown,
Said I had won in each sanguinary fray,
Mad with the glamour by my fancy made,
I drew a picture of a mate for her;
Made myself a warrior, a knight unafraid,
Of foes, single handed I forebore a massacre.
O great is fancy, with a man's heart on fire
For the smiles of the lady of his soul's desire.

It was thus I spoke, with an intent sure,
To this earth-new girl of an unsnared mind;
I would shuttle threads in a mesh secure
That would hold her fast while years unwind;
I would build for myself an April home
In her unstained heart, and her fancy free.
The golden swarm who harvest the bloom
The fragrant loot they would bring to me.
It was thus I purposed, in this garden fair,
On an April day, with my Lilith there.

It was thus I reasoned, but without offset,
In the Garden of Dreams off Memory Lane
I did not know,—so could not forget—
The mind of a maid holds much to explain:
Not April bloom nor yet springtime weather
Joined with breezy tales of mighty deeds done
On windy seas, or mid break of heather—
Not thus, in truth, is the maid's heart won.
On Memory Lane was thrown the circling loop;
But there, too, Fate decrees the winning scoop.

There are old worn paths, off Memory Lane,
Where journeys end and lover's meet
In an ageless land of the Silvery rain—
A mirage lures at the end of each street,
There hurry we all, by an eager choice,
Who hear the winning call of April's voice.

—DAVID W. CADE.

DADDY BOONER

Daddy Booner, who is he?
Come up State with me and see—Oldest man in Squeeterville—Always lived there, always will.
'Daytime he does many a chore, Nights he's always at the store Spinning yarns off by the reel, Rather talk than eat a meal;
Don't need a paper in the town With Daddy Booner hangin' roun'.
Keeping the cider barrel warm, Prognosticating sun or storm, Spittin' out tobacco juice, Swearin' like the very deuce, Tellin' all the news there is,
Knowin' everybody's biz;
Amusements in the town are nil, But Daddy's jokes a book would fill;
He's newspaper and circus, too, There's nothin' that old chap can't do.

Daddy Booner, who is he?
He's Squeeterville's celebrity!

MRS. R. F. SMITH.

SO MUCH SADNESS

There is so much sadness in this world
That we might help to lighten;
A friendly smile, a kindly word May bring new hope, to brighten The lonely heart without a friend And thus may help a grief to mend.

TWISTED TREE

When cold winds leave you barren, wretchedly
You lean your twisted trunk and limbs to earth
Thus hoping to conceal, with dignity Misshapen branches, graceless since your birth.
Your call and stately neighbors know the thrill
Of clear blue heights and swings of fastened rope,
While children pull your branches lower still;
Your dream of beauty is a forlorn hope.

'Til Spring, who chooses not by Beauty's mark
Puts budded leaf on every branch and stem Encircles you with emerald, sends a lark
To nest within your shaded diadem;
And warm winds pierce your lacy filigree Full proof of Nature's impartiality!
—GLADYS PETERS AUSTIN.

AFTER CHRISTMAS

The mad, mad rush is over.
Once more we make each bed,
The sink is free from dishes
And the cat and dog are fed.
We've sent a flock of greeting cards, Sighed with relief, and then The postman comes, Alas! Alack!
We've forgotten cousin Ben.

We've shopped around and wondered oft
What we would use for dough, Then straightway go right out and buy
Some sprigs of mistletoe, But joy! Oh! Joy! There's twelve long months
Ere it returns, but then,
How well we know without a doubt, We'll do the same again.
—GRACE SKINNER.

ADORING EYES

The face of Venus was ever praised By those who at her likeness gazed,
With upturned adoring eyes.
Her statues have been made the mold Of love that's passion, love that's bold.

But I believe not,
I say that they are only lies.

The face that God gave to my love Is one which holds all powers above, Descended from the skies.
In it, He put the pathos, strife,
The joy, the love, and all that's life.
And so I gaze
With upturned, adoring eyes.

—NANCY C. MOBLEY.

MOM

It's Mom at the start of life's journey,
And it's Mom dear, all the way.
It's Mom, whose hands guide me Through each passing day.

It's Mom now I give with gladness,
And with a love deep and true;
A sweet caress she'll always treasure;
Dear Mom!—her whole life through.
—JESSICA MOREHEAD YOUNG.

SUN COVERS

Mornings the sun throws aside his Covers of red,
And spreads it again when he is ready
For bed.
Then night covers it with his great Quilt of black,
Until dawn throws it off when the Sun comes back.

—DOROTHY BARTLETT.

Mrs. Harvey Groff returned home and is reported doing satisfactorily.

LADIES AID SOCIETY MEETS

The Ladies Aid Society of March met in the Fous Building on May 29, 1943, at 3 P. M. The meeting was opened by singing of hymns and prayer, then it proceeded in its regular manner.

The meeting was well attended and the society members are always happy to have visitors.

On the following committees the following members were appointed to serve for the month of June:

Sick committee: Mesdames Fritz Weiblen and Arthur Kricwald.
Membership committee: Mesdames Albert Schneider and Robert Stoltz.

The hostess, Mrs. A. H. Falkenberg, served the members a delicious lunch during which each one had a pleasant time.

For the next meeting in June the society has decided that each member bring a plate of some kind of food (sandwiches, cookies, or cake whatever they desire to bring). It is a task for the hostess to prepare lunch, since everything is rationed. This way each member brings a little something to help the hostess. The hostess furnishes the drinks. The hostess of June is Mrs. Clarence Haby.

On June 6, 1943, Paul Geiger will be ordained into the ministry. After the ordination, those who wish to stay and visit with the visiting group please bring your basket lunch and enough coffee for your family and a few guests. Tableaux will be shown in the Fous building for use in service.
